A. TRUSTEES

(i) The members mentioned here in above shall be individually known as Trustees and they shall occupy office for life.

(ii) Every Trustee is entitled to nominate any one of the person as his/her successor from among his/her family members to succeed him/her immediately by resigning his/her membership in the Trust. He / She can also nominate any one of the persons as his successor from among his/her family members to succeed him/her after his/her death. At the death of the Trustee, the person already nominated by him/her from his/her family will become the member of the Trust.

(iii) If however, any member Trustee does not make a nomination and the position of Trustee so occupied by such position becomes vacant for whatever reason, then the members of such persons family shall elect any one of the person from among themselves either unanimously or by simple majority for a specified period and shall communicate such nomination to the Trust. The nomination referred to herein shall be given to all legal heirs of the deceased member of the family in writing and with the signatures of all the members of the family or as many members of the family as have been present while selecting the successor and present the same to the Trust within a period of 3 months from the date on which such a vacancy arises.

(iv) In the event of the Trustee not nominating a successor and in the event of the legal heirs of the family members not being able to select one from among themselves within the stipulated period of 3 months, then the entire family will forfeit their right to appoint a successor. In such an eventuality, it is open to the remaining Trustees holding office to resign by a simple majority to select one person from the legal heirs of the deceased member's family for a specified period.
